

HOLLYWOOD.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 16.—Mrs. H. J. Whitley, president of the Hollywood Club, entertained its members and a few guests at her beautiful home on Prospect boulevard Monday afternoon. The parlors were tastefully decorated with the products of Mr. Whitley's gardens, roses, carnations and poinsettias predominating. The occasion was a Valentine heart party, in which the ladies competed for many beautiful and valuable prizes. The first and second prizes, gold-mounted vases, were won by Mrs. E. W. Elliott and Mrs. W. E. Townsend. The consolation, a silver pin tray, was awarded Miss Winstanley. The guest prizes, silver heart-shaped book marks, were won by Mrs. Dr. Palmer and Mrs. Dr. Davidson. Light refreshments were served.

Those present were Mmes. E. S. Waldron, McKeeby, A. G. Bartlett, E. W. Elliott, G. Dunbar Hall, Hanchet Morey, C. J. Wade, C. W. Walker, W. H. Townsend, Wylie Wade, Jr., Davidson Palmer, Morgan Henry, Stedman Herndon, Canterbury Lewis, Boyle, and Misses Ester Dent, Margaret Dent, Pearl Herndon, William Stanly, and Ada Sandison.

Mary Young, the eldest daughter of City Attorney Robert Young, entertained a number of her young friends at a Valentine tea Saturday evening.

Mrs. Gov. Beveridge will receive 150 ladies Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Raymond.
